Unique Experiences

The beauty of experiencing Australia by train is that you have a front-row seat from which to observe the changing colours of the landscape. While the views of the outside world from the comfort of your cabin are captivating, sometimes it's good to step off the train and stretch your legs to explore the remote pocket of Australia you find yourself in.

In between tracing the landscape, each leg of our rail journeys are marked with tailored Off Train Experiences and authentic encounters. These experiences tell the unique story of the land, providing a sense of place, people, and culture.

Venus Baths Walk, Grampians, VIC

Nitmiluk (Katherine Gorge) River Cruise, NT

EXPERIENCE

Coffs Harbour Dinner Experience, NSW

A highlight on The Ghan includes gently cruising along Nitmiluk Gorge near Katherine, witnessing the awe-inspiring sandstone cliffs and visiting an Indigenous rock art site, where artwork persists in telling its story, even after thousands of years exposed to the elements. On The Ghan Expedition, absorb the history of quirky Coober Pedy, an underground town famous for opal mining, and enjoy an evening under a blanket of stars at the Alice Springs Telegraph Station, where Akubra's and dusty red boots meet white tablecloths and silver service.

While crossing the continent on the Indian Pacific, take a break in Rawlinna, a small outpost that borders the not-so-little Rawlinna Station, home to up to 80,000 sheep spread across 2.5 million acres. A morning leg-stretch or an outback evening with a long-table dinner under the wide Nullarbor skies awaits, depending on your direction of travel.

Travelling south on the Great Southern summer adventure, dine beachside beneath fairy lights at Coffs Harbour or get in touch with Mother Nature with a guided walk at the beautiful Venus Baths in the Grampians.

No matter which rail journey you board, you'll leave with memories that last a lifetime and a deeper connection to country.

ENHANCE YOUR JOURNEY

You're about to set out on your train adventure and the excitement is building – or perhaps you're lamenting your epic journey drawing to a close. Why not start or finish in style with one of our city-based experiences? In Darwin, Perth, Sydney and Melbourne, you have the opportunity to add to your travels with a memorable experience that offers the exceptional level of service you've become accustomed to. Darwin Harbour Cruises. Rottnest Express. Journey Beyond Cruise Sydney. Melbourne Skydeck. Moments to treasure.

Nothing beats a tropical sunset and Darwin is known for its flaming skies. One of the best ways to soak up the sunset artistry is on a sunset cruise aboard Charles Darwin, Darwin Harbour Cruises' tri-level, air-conditioned catamaran.

Naturally, the Southern Hemisphere's highest observation deck is the best way to experience soaring views across Melbourne, but Melbourne Skydeck offers more than epic views. Discover the virtual reality theatre, a suspended glass box, the plank, romantic cocktail spots and more.

Perth is the gateway to Rottnest Island, where 63 beaches, 20 bays and around 10,000 adorable quokkas provide plenty of reasons to visit. Rottnest Express sets sail from three locations in Fremantle and Perth and offers bike hire, bus tours, adventure boat tours, and more.

That harbour. It's undoubtedly one of Sydney's finest features. And one of the best ways to admire it is on a lunch or dinner cruise with Journey Beyond Cruise Sydney. Think regionally inspired cuisine, fine wine and spectacular views of iconic sights including Sydney Harbour Bridge, Sydney Opera House and Luna Park.

THE GHAN

The Ghan is iconic for a reason. Its bold-red locomotive matches the red earth it travels across, all the while connecting to the outback and the incredible scenery of the Red Centre.

There are two possible journeys on The Ghan. Travelling northbound, The Ghan calls in to Marla, Alice Springs and Katherine year-round. Travelling south in March and November, the stops are Katherine, Alice Springs, and Manguri.

From April to October, The Ghan's three-day journey southbound becomes The Ghan Expedition, covering four epic days. The extended Ghan Expedition exclusively departs Darwin for Adelaide, including a stop in Coober Pedy and a dinner under the stars that is often the pinnacle of the adventure.

If the rail journey leaves you wanting more, consider travelling further with a curated itinerary that takes you on a deeper adventure of discovery beyond the tracks.

Day 8: Adelaide to Kangaroo Island

Depart on your flight to Kangaroo Island. Begin the 'Island Life' tour, which provides a taste of the way of life in this bucolic spot, where things take time, drivers' wave as they go by and passers-by stop for a chat.

Walk through towering Eucalyptus trees, where koalas snooze overhead. Listen for the sounds of the bush – honeyeaters, parrots, cicadas or perhaps the sound of silence. Travel to the north coast and walk through the bush, learning what makes that noise and whose tracks those are.

Lunch is at a private bush camp. Afterwards, at Seal Bay Conservation Park, take a tour among Australian sea lions on the sandy beach. Watch pups and old bulls bearing the scars of territorial disputes and learn about their unique breeding biology.

After a day of touring, you will return to your accommodation, with dinner included. (B,L,D) 2 nights, Mercure Kangaroo Island Lodge.

Please note: Day 8 and 9 may be interchanged.

Day 9: Kangaroo Island

Learn about fire ecology and how nature deals with this natural hazard. Travel into Flinders Chase National Park and explore Remarkable Rocks, a natural sculpture. Then you'll break for a picnic lunch in the bush or on a spectacular clifftop. Evidence of the power of the Southern Ocean swell continues at Admirals Arch – a coastal grotto that provides a haul out for a large colony of Long-nosed Fur Seals. After touring, return to your accommodation, with dinner included. (B,L,D)

Day 10: Kangaroo Island to Adelaide

This morning, you'll be transferred to the airport for your return flight to Adelaide. Arriving in Adelaide, you will be transferred to your city accommodation and spend the remainder of the day at your leisure. (B) 1 night, Sofitel Adelaide.

Day 11: Farewell

Check out after breakfast, bringing your epicurean adventure to an end. (B)
