DAY 2 – INDIAN PACIFIC, KALGOORLIE AND COOK

Rise to see the sunrise across the vast Nullarbor before arriving in Kalgoorlie, Australia's largest outback town. This morning, delve into the region's fascinating past and present with a visit to its gold-rush heritage and the modern-day Super Pit mine. Choose your Off Train Experience and explore Kalgoorlie your way, with morning refreshments included.

After brunch on board, spend the afternoon at your leisure with fine hospitality as the Nullarbor passes by. Along the way, you'll cross state borders and time zones before settling in for a regionally inspired dinner on board. Later, arrive into Cook, South Australia. Once a bustling town and today only a handful of residents remain. Step off into this outback outpost where its stories endure and, as evening falls, look skyward. With little light pollution, Cook offers an extraordinary view of the night sky, including the Southern Cross and other constellations when conditions are right. (B,L,D)

DAY 3 – INDIAN PACIFIC, BAROSSA VALLEY

Spend the morning travelling through the pastoral heart of South Australia, with sweeping views of the Flinders Ranges, Spencer Gulf, and the Adelaide Plains unfolding beyond your window. A leisurely breakfast and lunch are served on board, inviting you to savour the relaxed rhythm of train travel.

In the afternoon, disembark at Long Plains and transfer by coach to the world-renowned Barossa Valley. Here, at the historic Seppeltsfield Estate, an evening of fine wine and dining awaits. Begin with a wine and canapé tasting before heading into the vintage cellar for a signature culinary experience created exclusively for Indian Pacific guests. Witness the spectacular 'Firing of the Barrel' before enjoying a food and wine pairing designed by Executive Chef Owen Andrews. Platinum guests are also invited to taste a rare 100-year-old tawny, a true highlight of the region.

After dinner return to the train at Adelaide Parklands Terminal, where the Indian Pacific rolls eastward into the night. (B,L,D)

Overnight the Indian Pacific crosses another border, arriving in Broken Hill, New South Wales – the famed Silver City. After a hearty breakfast, set out to explore this legendary outback town.

SYDNEY CLASSIC CITY STAY

Choose an experience that brings the character of Broken Hill to life, from exploring its rich mining heritage and early outback history to delving into its vibrant artistic culture. Food lovers can enjoy an experience celebrating the region's native ingredients, while other experiences offer a chance to meet local characters and gain a deeper connection to this remarkable outback community.

DAY 5 – INDIAN PACIFIC, BLUE MOUNTAINS AND SYDNEY
Your final day begins in the majestic Blue Mountains, where soaring sandstone cliffs and eucalypt valleys create a World Heritage–listed landscape unlike any other. After breakfast, farewell the Indian Pacific and step into this extraordinary bushland for your Off Train Experience.

At Scenic World, choose from four iconic adventures. Glide above ravines on the Scenic Skyway, descend into the forest aboard the Scenic Cableway, or ride the world's steepest passenger railway. Alternatively, stretch your legs on a guided walk to soak up the views, or savour a decadent high tea at the historic Hydro Majestic Hotel, framed by sweeping mountain panoramas.

To complete your journey, board our chartered New South Wales rail service, fully hosted by your Indian Pacific crew, into Sydney's Central Station. For those preferring an earlier arrival, the option to remain on the Indian Pacific and reach Sydney before lunch is also available. (B,L) (B)
